

STATEMENT OF RESPONSABILITY

D. Alfonso Cabezón Vizoso with ID: 54151930V.

As author of the thesis entitled: CYCLOPEp: a computational platform for the design of therapeutic cyclic peptides through computational simulations, Big Data analysis and Artificial Intelligence.

I declare that my contributions to the articles included in this thesis following the Compendium of Articles format was original and substantial which justify my assignation as first author in all of them. For the record, I list the tasks carried out by each coauthor, all of them holding a PhD and have not included any of the articles here included in their own thesis:

- Alfonso Cabezón: Conceptualization, code development, data analysis, platform visual design, investigation, simulation experiments, methodology, and results writing and reviewing.
- Martín Calvelo: Conceptualization and results reviewing.
- Fabián Suarez: Code development, and results writing and reviewing.
- Erik Ótovic: Code development, data analysis, investigation, methodology, results writing and reviewing
